The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, August 29. 1721.

London, August 29.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Flanders.

Algier, May 30.

'THE British Consul has delivered his 'Britannick Majesty's Letter and 'Present to the Dey, which he re- 'ceived with a great deal of Plea- 'sure, expressing abundance of Respect and Defe- 'rence for his Majesty and the British Nation; and 'has released Captain Ribeira and his Men, rely- 'ing on the Assurance his Majesty gives him, that 'he will endeavour to procure the Liberty of the 'Moors and full Satisfaction for their Effects car- 'ried into Malaga by the Spaniards. The said 'Captain Ribeira, with his Vessel and Effects, 'sailed the 19th of February, and arrived in Ceuta 'della two Days afterwards.

Ratisbon, Aug. 2[3]. Lutherans and Refor[med] Empire, has produced the [same] those People against their common Persecutors; and Methods are in Agitation for bringing them to Unity likewise in Points of Religion. The Evangelical Body has had under Examination some written Tracts composed on that Subject by able Divines, and 'tis greatly hoped, that an happy Issue will shortly attend their Labours, in spite of the wicked Underminings contrived by the Papists to prevent it. Upon the late Resolution taken by the Protestant Ministers to order M. de Rech to continue his Residence in the Palatinate, the Elector Palatine's Minister was pleased to signify, that the Elector his Master had a Right of obliging him to leave his Territories; to which he received a plain Answer, admitting that Right to be as incontestable as the Elector pleased, but that his Electoral Highness's Ministers might expect the same Treatment on the part of the Protestant Princes, and in the Country of Cleves especially, where the Palatine Minister had nothing else to do besides picking up Informations, if the Papists, who are Subject to the Power of the illustrious House of Brandenbourg, are maintained in their Liberties, Temporal and Spiritual, according to the Treaty of Westphalia.

Brussels, Aug. 28. On the 25th Instant, the Prince de la Tour and Taxis gave a great Entertainment to several Persons of Distinction, on Occasion of its being the Anniversary of St. Lewis, whose Name is born by the Princess his Spouse, and also by the Prince of Baden. At Night a Firework was let off in the Garden, after which followed a Ball. This Day, the present reigning Empress's Birth Day was celebrated here with great Rejoycings. The 13 Engineers, who had some time ago formed a Design of going to Milan, to enter themselves into the Emperour's Service, and were stopt on their Way thither, having since fully justified the Nature of their Engagement into that Service, are permitted to go thither, and have obtained a Passport accordingly. The Marquess de Prié has put off his Journey to Aix la Chapelle till next Week. Advices from Ostend say, that the Ship named the Moor, safely arrived there on the 25th Instant from Moca and Malabar, in the East Indies with rich Cargoes of Coffee and Silks; but has been 20 Months on the Voyage, out and home. It is a Doubt whether the Government will acknowledge the Passport. It is reported, that she was attacked in her Passage [illegible]

[illegible] is at present [illegible] City, will receive the Investiture of his Office by the first President of Parliament after the Feast of St. Martin; he is, in the mean time, pursuing his Studies in the Law, in order to take his Degrees, and be admitted to Plead: It is reported that he designs to revive the ancient Prerogatives of that Employment in all its Branches. M. de la Boissiere, Son of M. de la Boissiere, the King's Lieutenant of the City and Castle of Dieppe, is to marry Madame de Boutainvillieres, in Consideration of which his Majesty will permit him the enjoyment of his Father's Employments. On the 30th of the last Month, the Anniversary Devotions for the late King were performed in his Majesty's Chapel; and on the 1st Instant the King's Musicians celebrated the same in the Church of St. Dennis. The same Day, at seven a-Clock in the Morning, two Soldiers of the Guards shot an Officer of the Watch in the Coquilliere Street, and made their Escape. On the 31st of the last Month the King went to the Observatory, but first to the Queen's Appartments in the old Louvre, and beheld from the Windows the Games of the Watermen and Ferrymen, on the River between the Pont neuf and the Pont Royal. On the 28th of the last Month the King's Ordinance was published, requiring the Officers belonging to the several Regiments in Dauphiné, Provence, Languedoc, &c. to repair to their Posts: Its Contents are as follow, viz.

By the King.

HIS Majesty receiving Information that the most part of the Officers of his Troops, as well of Foot as of Horse and Dragoons, who are employed ployed at present to guard the Passages to Dauphiné, Provence, Languedoc, and Auvergne, and in the Districts of Bourdeaux and Montauban, or have received Orders to repair thither, are nevertheless absent, to the great Prejudice of their Duty: And taking into Consideration how extreamly requisite it is for them to be at their Posts for the Safety of the Passages committed to their Care, and to prevent the Communication of the contagious Distemper with which some of those Provinces are afflicted; his Majesty therefore, with Advice of the Duke of Orleans, hath ordered, and does hereby command and strictly enjoin all the Officers of the said Troops, as well those who have obtained Leave of Absence, as others, to repair to their Posts before the Expiration of the Month of September next without Delay, under the Penalty of being cashiered and losing their Commissions. His Majesty further commands and enjoins all his Governours and Lieutenant Generals in the Provinces, and the Officers commanding in Chief in their Absence, the Governours of his Cities and Places, the Intendants of the said Provinces, the Inspectors General and Commissaries of his Troops, to see the Contents of this Ordinance duly executed; which his Majesty also requires shall be read, published, and affixed in all Places as may be found convenient, to the End none pretend Cause of Ignorance. Done at [illegible] the 28th of August, 1721.

Signed LOUIS,
And Lower, Le Blanc.
